

White Label CFO Partnership

Entrepreneurial appeal

Small business entrepreneurs have a lot to worry about: staff, products, services, customers, marketing, and the list goes on. After all, that's why they hired you to do their bookkeeping. The next step in adding sophistication to their management is a financial leadership partner. That's where WHITE LABEL CFO's Services come in.

You own the client relationship; we provide micro-CFO services under your label. By contracting out the work, you add profit to each relationship without lifting a finger. Together we coordinate the best tools for each client, and with custom reporting and guidance, your clients come out stronger and better able to grow, further reinforcing your relationship. That means longer-tenured clients and increasing monthly revenue. These packages are designed to be:

- Price-conscious for small business owners
- High-value relative to traditional CFO pricing ($3,000–$8,000/month market range)
- Scalable and easy to deliver on a recurring basis
- Clear and actionable for non-financial business owners

Your firm's opportunity

When you partner with this white-label desk, you can take the offering deeper with every client. Better outcomes deepen the relationship. That supports retention and opens further work as clients hire, expand, raise capital, or look at acquisition and exit.

The benefits are not just a boost of revenue for your firm, but from additional opportunities and longer relationships as your clients become capable of hiring more employees, expand operations, seek additional funding, and explore acquisition and exit (M&A or retirement) opportunities.
